

India to soon start tri-lateral exercise with Singapore: PM

Singapore: India will soon start a new tri-lateral exercise with Singapore with which New Delhi has the longest uninterrupted naval drills, Prime Minister Narendra Modi announced on Friday.

He, however, did not name the third participant. "India's armed forces, especially our Navy, are building partnerships in the Indo-Pacific region for peace and security, as well as humanitarian assistance and disaster relief," Modi said.