

Low-key India, Afghan teams at Moscow meet

Rezaul H Laskar

■ letters@hindustantimes.com

NEW DELHI: Russia's attempts to position itself as a key player in Afghanistan have run into rough weather again with Afghanistan and India sending non-official delegations to a meeting in Moscow on Friday that will be attended by Taliban representatives.

"Our participation at the meeting will be at the non-official level," external affairs ministry spokesperson Raveesh Kumar said on Thursday, without giving details. »P17