

Aadhaar update history now just a click away

NEW DELHI

The Unique Identification Authority of India said on Wednesday that users would now be able to check online the update history of their Aadhaar number from its website. The update history will show date-wise details of updates made in fields, including address, name, date of birth, gender, or addition/deletion of mobile number or e-mail id, since the number was generated.