

Aadhaar of over 30,000 children linked to portal

NEW DELHI

The Aadhaar details of over 30,000 children living in child care institutions have been linked to the TrackChild portal, a central database, following reports of many going missing from shelters, an official said. TrackChild, which has details of missing children, coordinates with child homes, the police and State governments. PTI

Student attacks