

Forces ready with list of 300 terrorists to be neutralised

RAJESH KUMAR ■ NEW DELHI

The top security establishments have prepared a blueprint to deliver a lethal blow to terrorists in the Kashmir valley after the end of Ramzan ceasefire. The security agencies have short-listed 250-300 terrorists from Lashkar-e-Tayyeba, Hizbul Mujahideen and Jaish-e-Mohammed for the operation.

“The prime locations of terrorist activities were mapped during the Ramzan ceasefire. Intelligence agencies have carried out a secret district-wise survey to identify their hideouts. This strategic operation is based on meticulous planning and intelligence-gathering,” sources added.
