

India, Singapore ink protocol to boost trade

NEW DELHI, 24 AUGUST

India and Singapore today signed the Second Protocol amending the Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement (CECA), which will boost bilateral trade, with both sides agreeing to expand the coverage of tariff concessions.

The provisions of the Second Protocol will come into effect from 14 September 2018. "The two countries are exploring the possibility of launching the 3rd Review of India-Singapore CECA in September 2018," an official statement said here.

The conclusion of the Second Review of CECA was announced during the state visit of Prime Minister Narendra Modi to Singapore on 1 June 2018.
