

Govt: Pak must take care of its minorities

AGE CORRESPONDENT
with agency inputs
NEW DELHI, AUG. 10

India on Friday said Pakistan should stop "state repression" and "gross violation of human rights" in Balochistan.

It also urged Pakistan to take care of its minorities in accordance with the international obligations.

Asked about the issue of Balochistan during a press briefing here, ministry of external affairs Spokesperson Raveesh Kumar said, "Our position remains the same. Pakistan should take care of its minorities in accordance with the international obligations. It should stop state repression."