

‘Modicare’ in focus at Asian health meet

NEW DELHI, SEPT 3

India showcased the National Health Protection Mission at a meeting of health ministers of 11 Southeast Asian Region nations of the WHO which began on Monday.

Speaking at the meeting, Health Minister JP Nadda flagged the National Health Protection Mission as a major plan to enhance affordable healthcare for the poor, which was something common to all participating nations. — TNS