

Pak allows visit to Indus project

ISLAMABAD, SEPTEMBER 4

Pakistan will allow India to inspect the Kotri barrage in the lower Indus, while New Delhi has agreed to Islamabad's request for a special inspection of the hydroelectric projects in the Jhelum river basin, including the Kishanganga scheme, a Pakistani media report said on Tuesday.

The decision was taken during last week's meeting of the Permanent Indus Commission held in Lahore. — PTI
