

SUCCESS STORIES

WHEN THE Pradhan mantri Jan Arogya Yojana completes 100 days later this month, the National Health Agency will release a coffee table book of 100 stories about how the world's largest government health insurance programme changed the lives of India's poor. The scheme was launched on September 23 by Prime Minister Narendra Modi and has so far seen 4.94 lakh hospital admissions throughout the country.