

PRESS INFORMATION BUREAU (DEFENCE WING),
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
NEW DELHI, July 13, 1950.

A NEW COMMODORE FOR COCHIN

New Delhi, July 13 - Commodore Ellison, R.N. who is Commodore-in-Charge of the Naval establishment in Cochin and also Commodore Superintendent, Training Establishments in the Indian Navy, will be shortly leaving India and going back to work with the Royal Navy. He came to this country about two years ago.

He will be succeeded by Commodore E.G.McGregor, DSO, RN, who has already sailed for India. Commodore McGregor served in Command of HMS GOSLING, a New-Entry Training Establishment in the United Kingdom. Later, he was Chief of Staff to the Flag Officer Commanding the British Naval Forces in Germany.

PRESS INFORMATION BUREAU (DEFENCE WING),
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
NEW DELHI, July 13, 1950.

A NEW COMMODORE FOR COCHIN

New Delhi, July 13.- Commodore Ellison, R.N. who is Commodore-in-Charge of the Naval establishment in Cochin and also Commodore Superintendent, Training Establishments in the Indian Navy, will be shortly leaving India and going back to work with the Royal Navy. He came to this country about two years ago.

He will be succeeded by Commodore E.G.McGregor, DSO, RN, who has already sailed for India. Commodore McGregor served in Command of HMS GOSLING, a New-Entry Training Establishment in the United Kingdom. Later, he was Chief of Staff to the Flag Officer Commanding the British Naval Forces in Germany.