New Delhi, September 5, 1954.

Vice-Admiral Sir Mark Pizey, Commander-in-Chief of the Indian Navy, returned by air to New Delhi today from the United Kingdom via Bombay.

Admiral Pizey went on deputation to the United Kingdom leaving India early in July last.

On arrival at the Palam Airport, Admiral Pizey was received by Commodore R.D. Katari, Deputy C-in-C, who in the absence of the former officiated as the Naval C-in-C in the rank of Rear-Admiral. Also present at the Airport were the four Principal Staff Officers of Naval Headquarters---Capt. I.F.M. Newnham, Capt. B.A. Samson, Capt. M.K. Heble and Capt. J.E. Smallwood, Mrs. Katari and other high-ranking Naval Officers.
