

PRESS INFORMATION BUREAU (DEFENCE WING)
GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

COMMODORE SOMAN TO TAKE OVER BOMBAY COMMAND

New Delhi, October 15, 1956 - An important change in the senior appointments in the Navy's Commands has been announced by Naval Headquarters.

Commodore B.S. Soman, at present Commodore-in-Charge, Cochin, has been appointed Commodore-in-Charge Bombay vice Commodore A.K. Chatterji. Commodore Chatterji will be proceeding to the U.K. to attend a course at the Imperial Defence College. Commodore Soman is due to take over his new appointment towards the end of next month.

UN/MRV.

850/15.10.56/8005.