CHIEFS OF STAFF COMMITTEE BIDS FAREWELL TO ADMIRAL TAHILIANI

New Delhi, Agrahayana 06, 1909
November 27, 1987

Admiral R.H. Tahiliani, Chairman of Chiefs ^{of} Staff Committee and Chief of the Naval Staff was bid farewell by the Air Force and Army Chiefs here today. Air Chief Marshal D.A. La Fontaine and General K. Sundarji underlined the contribution and achievements of Admiral Tahiliani's 22 month tenure as Chairman of the Chiefs of Staff Committee. They made a special mention of his piloting the fourth Pay Commission benefits for Armed Forces personnel, creation of the apex organisation of ^{the} Defence Planning Staff and his contribution in fostering closer coordination between the three Armed Forces. They added "these are matters of historic significance to the nation and due acknowledgement is made by the Chiefs of Army and Air Force of Admiral Tahiliani's contribution".

Admiral R.H. Tahiliani will retire on November 30, on completion of his three year tenure as Chief of Naval Staff.
