Subject: A special report on RED activities- regarding

Today on the birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel popularly known as Iron Man PIB Lucknow organized a special programme at Lucknow. This day is also celebrated as Rashtriya Ekta Diwas. PIB Lucknow organized a programme today at Neta Ji Subhash Chandra Bose Government Girls Post Graduate College Lucknow among the youngsters.

Youngsters were targeted with a view that the yoke of nation is going to fall upon their shoulders and that is the reason that they should be very conversant with the ideology of Sardar Patel.

A lecture competition was organized among the girl students on the life and works of Sardar Patel. First, second, third and seven consolation prizes were conferred on the winners.

The competition programme was followed by a seminar on Sardar Patel. Shri Suresh Kumar Srivastava, Hon'ble Member of Legislative Assembly of Uttar Pradesh was the Chief Guest. Apart from him Shri Gyan Singh Patel, a philosopher, writer and social worker of high water mark graced the function in capacity of special guest.

All the guests threw light upon life and works of Sardar Patel. A pledge of RED was also taken on the occasion. The programme concluded with national anthem.

Before the programme today in forenoon at 11 am a pledge of RED was also taken by the officers and officials of PIB regional office Lucknow in the chamber of Shri Arimardan Singh, ADG (R).
