

African Bank head heaps praise on Modi

PNS ■ GANDHINAGAR

On the final day of the 52nd annual Meeting of African Development Bank (AfDB), Akinwumi Adesina, the current President of AFDB, praised Prime Minister Narendra Modi and said that because of his pragmatic efforts cooperation between India and Africa would go deeper.

Speaking on the future of growth of Africa, Adesina talked about how the private sector would become the engine of growth for development in the continent. Furthermore, while talking about the role of women in the economy of Africa, the president of AFDB stated that no bird can fly with one wing, and for any of Africa's country's to develop, the equal involvement of men and women in the near future would be necessary for Africa to develop. On Gujarat, Adesina said that it is a dynamic economy and responsible for processing 90% of the world's diamonds and it have highly developed medical facilities.